THE DAILY GLOBE

In surrendering my interest in the organ of a great political party, I cherished the ourpose of continuing the Congressional Globe, and, if possible, in time, to perfect it giving the debates accurately and fully with the proceedings-all stamped with the verity of an official record. From the passage in the letter of General Washington, which I have quoted, it will be perceived that he that of a regular newspaper; and it is certain that the avidity of the public for news of the less important kind greatly contributes to give wings to the weightier matter which
